An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Bob Madsen on 10-22-2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 25, line 4, replace "resonates" with:--resinates--.

In claim 38, line 4, replace "resonates" with:--resinates--.

In claim 42, line 2, delete "the vegetable oils are used in the presence of".

To ensure proper printing, please rewrite specification page 6, line 19, as:--The vegetable oils preferred according to the invention are flax,--. The original line is partly obscured in reproduction.

Upon further consideration, the examiner has rejoined the nonelected claims 26, 27, 39 and 40.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to recognize the particular utility of the claimed combination including the observed softening point and penetration values. Furthermore, the prior art does not enable one of ordinary skill in the art to predict the penetration and softening point values of the particular combinations of the instant claims from the softening point of the component resin and the viscosity of the oil component. The Pinomaa reference teaches away from the instant claims in that examples using marginally softer resins, even in greater proportions, produce combination having penetration values and softening points of a different magnitude and too soft to be measured. The prior art of record fails to teach or suggest the combination of a vegetable origin resin having a softening point of 100-300 C and a vegetable oil of the recited viscosity in proportions necessary to produce the claimed binder.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David M. Brunsman whose telephone number is 571-272-1365. The examiner can normally be reached on M, Th, F, Sa; 7:00-5:30.
